

Internal Quality Assurance Cell

Baburao Patil College of Arts and Science Angar

About IAQC –

In purchase of action plan for performance evaluation, assessment, accreditation and quality up gradation for institution of higher education the National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC) propose that every accredited institute should establish Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) as a post quality sustenance measures. Since quality enhancement is continuous process, the IQAC becomes the part of the institution system and work towards realization of the goals of quality and sustenance. The prime task of IQAC is to develop a system for conscious, consistent and catalytic improvement in the overall performance of institutes. For this during post accreditation period, it will channelize all efforts and measures of the institute towards promoting the holistic and academic excellence. Severe conscious efforts we are taken for quality sustenance and enhancement in the broad spectrum of academic and supportive activities. IQAC has always aimed to addresses questions such as:

How can we improve the quality of education process and outcomes?

How to motivate “out of box” thinking?

IQAC is reflected in the highlighting features of the college that have triggered the growth of the college.
